Every day from 10 am to 5 pm, families with children (ages 6 to 12) can borrow a suitcase and go on a journey of discovery through the museum. The suitcases contain objects to touch and smell, treasure hunts and puzzles to solve. It also offers text cards containing “travel information” – stories about the exhibition objects.

Suitcases are available for the following departments: Medieval, Renaissance, Design, China and Orient. No previous arrangements necessary

The Open Studio KinderKunstMobil

The open Studio KinderKunstMobil is premiering at the exhibition F.K. Waechter – Draughtsman. As a kind of mobile “workspot” within the Museum für Angewandte Kunst Frankfurt, the Studio KinderKunstMobil invites young visitors to scout out exhibitions on their own. In this case, children and teens can use the available materials to explore F.K. Waechter’s draughtsmanship independently, become artists themselves and exhibit their works. The studio is open daily during the museum’s regular visitor hours.
